Dear Class of 1971

Thank you so much for helping us to continue Jesus' missionary work in our school. Your generous donation as part of the Class of 1971 Reunion will directly support the children at St. Clare of Montefalco School.

The funds raised by your class are being used to transform the school library into an updated space for students to enjoy. New furniture and a library system have been purchased, and cosmetic upgrades such as new paint will be made soon. We will share the final result once all the updates are completed. It is because of generous people like you that St. Clare is able to provide an established Catholic education for the members of our school community and maintain its facilities.

I wish you and your family a very holy, safe, and fun Christmas season.

Thank you again for your contribution and for your generous support of St. Clare of Montefalco Catholic School.

God bless,
